Local Notes.

Important Notice.

Several persons responded to our notice and paid their subscriptions. Others have paid no attention and are waiting to put us to the annoyance and expense of sending a collector. Its your place to bring or send the money to us, and not our place to stop work and hunt you up. This is intended for ALL who owe the paper, no matter how big a pill you think you are.

Oysters served in WCTU rooms Friday evening from six until ten p m

C D Powell & Co are selling 19 lb of granulated sugar for $1 cash, and eggs at 22 cents.

Lost, at dancing school, a gold owl stick pin. If found, please return to this office.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church will meet with Mrs W T West, Danville avenue, next Saturday afternoon.

Free.

We will send The Record free, for one year, to the person who will tell us of a single human act that cannot be traced to a selfish motive.

The Christian Endeavor of the Christian church will serve oysters in WCTU rooms Friday evening, Nov 17, at 25c. A pleasant evening socially is promised to all who attend.

The young men of this city have organized a Social Club composed of a number of the best material. The ladies are asked to co operate with them and visitors are invited to attend.

Thanksgiving Market.

At the WCTU rooms, Wednesday, the 29th, promptly at 1 o'clock the sale of good things will begin. Give your orders for cakes next week.

Thanks.

In remitting his subscription due The Record, Mr G S Gaines, now of Muskogee, Indian Territory, kindly refers to it as "the only paper that ever was published."

Educational.

Profs Mannix, of Lancaster Graded School and Ireland of Stanford Graded School will address the Danville Graded School today; and next Friday Profs Ireland and Grinstead will address the Lancaster Graded School.

Final Notice to Tax-Payers.

I wish to give the tax-payers of Garrard county notice that their taxes for 1905 have long since been due, and must be paid by November 30, as the penalty goes on all taxes December 1, 1905, which will be charged. Come and pay at once and save cost and penalty. W L Lawson, S. G. C. 17 2t

Editor Landram Still in Atlanta.

Editor Louis Landram, of The Record, was expected home last week, but one small place on his leg has not healed sufficiently for him to leave for home. Our readers may have some idea of the trouble he has had when we state that he has been on the surgeon's operating table every day for the past nine weeks. The principal trouble has been remedied, however, and we are expecting him home most any time.

Attention.

The tobacco growers of Garrard county are requested to meet at the Court House next Saturday at one o'clock, p. m., to elect officers for the ensuing year. They have already taken $4,000 stock in the Tobacco Growers' Association, and a full attendance is necessary, next Saturday, in order to take steps to protect the interests of those who cultivate this valuable crop. The enterprise will be worth much to the farmers of the county, if they will properly use the means, which they now have, to guard their interests and insure better prices.

Communication.

The local Chute cocktail, the odor of which readily penetrates boiler plate, is made from an extract of barbed wire slightly tintured with alcohol. It smells like whisky, but is ten times more deadly. It drops a man at forty rods. Now, if a man is hog enough to fill himself with such stuff as this and then walk into a crowd of respectable people he should be made to hold his breath. For, if he breathes at all, the exhaled stench which he thus liberates is calculated to paralyze innocent people at a distance of ten feet. This was demonstrated here on Tuesday last by one or two old wheezy bums who were seen early in the day butting their way uncertainly about the streets. The trouble is, these old galoots breathe harder and more frequently than any body else, never seeming to realize that they are responsible for the broadcast dissemination of a rank and noxious perfume. Assailed by such smells, who can deny that a deodorized intoxicant is one of the imperative needs of modern civilization.

Bazaar.

The Presbyterian Missionary Society and Christian Endeavor will have a Bazaar, consisting of fancy articles and home made candy, on December 2.

Official Vote.

Messrs J I Hamilton and W L Lawson counted the vote Friday. The majorities given by the Record last week were correct except in the jailer's race, Ross, majority being 2 more than the number given then. The official majorities are as follows:—

S. D. COCHRAN.
Re-elected Representative of Garrard County.

R L Hubble, State Senate	469
S D Cochran, Representative	462
A D Ford, County Judge	356
David Ross, for jailer	479
George B Allen, for Assessor	426
J P Bourne, Magistrate	343

The total vote, for officers where there was no opposition, is as follows:

J A Doty, for county clerk	1485
J E Robinson, county attorney	1508
C A Arnold, for sheriff	1601
Mittie Dunn, School Superintendent	1531
Henry Simpson, Coroner	1515

CAPTAIN J. A. DOTY.
Re-elected County Clerk of Garrard County, Without Opposition.

Carpenter, prohibition candidate for State Senate received 62 votes; Parks prohibition candidate for representative, 55. For constitutional amendment, 451; Against constitutional amendment, 335.

Total vote in race for county Judge was 2084. William Campbell's majority for constable is 119. Total votes for other magistrates and constables are as follows: Capt I M Dunn 437; Forst Stapp 327; William Wells 360; G M Siler 623; Huffman 424; Raymond Ray 322.

The pictures of those who had opposition are run first and those, without opposition, will be run in the order in which they appear on the ballot, three each issue if we have suitable cuts.

J. P. BOURNE.
Re-elected Magistrate in the First District.

A Good Sign.

We venture the assertion that Lancaster has more lodges, with more lodge members, than any town, of its size in Kentucky. This indicates good will, charity, benevolence and a belief in the brotherhood of man. The good that is done by these secret organizations is beyond estimation. The sick is watched over and every comfort is given to them. The widow and orphan receive the same tender care that was bestowed by the parent. There is no better way to judge the culture, the enlightenment and the Christian Spirit of a people, than by the number of lodge members they have. They are void of selfishness as for as poor mortals can possibly be.

Money Ready.

The money, due the Teachers of Garrard county, has been received and will be paid Saturday, Nov 18th.
L L Walker,

Dr Elliotts' home was made brighter Sunday by the arrival of a daughter.

Read the advertisement of Moore & Offutt, Real estate agents, Corbin, Ky

The City Council appointed J J Walker, A R Denny and M D Hughes to act as supervisors of the property list.

Much good was done by the meetings held by Elder F M Tindler, at West Point School House during the last week.

Another son came to Dr J B Kinnaids Sunday morning—now 5 sons and 2 daughters making the lucky Bible number, 7.

Read the advertisement of Mount and Elkins corn show, November 27. Ten Dollars in Gold will be given to the best 20 ears of corn.

Thursday, 30, will be Thanksgiving Day and the average town man is in bad shape, as turkeys are 15 cents on foot, or about 18 cents on the table.

Mr G S Greenleaf expresses his thanks to the people generally, and to the good ladies especially, for their many kind attentions during his late illness.

The Ladies Aid Society, of the Christian church, will have a large Exchange at the Post office, next Saturday afternoon, consisting of pies, cakes, Salads &c.

Come in if you want the best work. Go to the best place to get your razors honed or shears sharpened. We have fitted up our shop, new from bottom to top.
Henry Duncan. 1f

For Rent or Sale

The Splendid store-room now occupied by Joseph Mercantile Company, adjoining National Bank. One of the best places for business in the city. Apply to Hughes and Swinebroad.

Good News.

Recent development in Railroad circles indicate the fact that the Southern Railroad will be built to Lancaster, by way of Faulconer. There are many good reasons for believing this the chief of which is that it will open a new territory instead of running contiguous to another line.

Legislative.

As the Record is always for Garrard county people, at home or abroad, we note the fact that Mr Thomas J Drewry, who was born in Lancaster, and who now lives in Louisville, was elected to represent the Fifty-first Legislative District, and he is a candidate for Speaker of the House of Representatives. As Garrard people generally get what they want, his opponents may look out.

Demand for Homes.

There are more people seeking homes in Lancaster than have for years, this early in the season, and there will be no vacant houses on January 1. Out of half a dozen farmers, who have looked for city property, only one has arranged to locate—J H Dunn, who bought Miss Jennie Arnold property, on Danville avenue, at $2 300. This demonstrates the fact that Lancaster, with her cultured and hospitable people, her churches and her splendid school, is an inviting place, and that real estate will always be in demand.

A Card.

To Voters of Garrard County:
I beg to express sincere thanks to those who supported me in my last race. It affords me a proud satisfaction to know that the owners of 75 per cent of the taxable property of the county, expressed their willingness, at the polls, for me to guard their interest for another term, as county Judge. For this expression of confidence I offer my deepest gratitude, and solemnly promise that the trust imposed shall never be neglected.

Very Respectfully,
A D Ford.

Unique Characters.

It is agreed that Lancaster has more singular characters than any town of its size, in the world. Those familiar with the people can guess them by a few references to their habits, language, etc. One is happy and agreeable under all conditions and circumstances, and, when greeted by a friend says, "I am charming," or I am fine as split silk, and sometimes he says "Here is to you and your people," another butchers the English language by such expressions as—"The court gave pre emptory instructions," "A difficulty occurred between he and I." Another is suspicious and speaks unkindly of every body, tho' he is very immoral, and fails to cover the tracks which he makes in dark paths and evil ways. Another hates all dogs. Another will buy a farm or a store, as quick as he will a cow, a hog, a mule or a horse, and mix politics with the transaction. The only argument of another is to bet a dollar. Another appears to know more than anybody and never goes with the current. He will deny the truth of nearly every thing you say and take issue with you on the plainest proposition. Guess these and we will give some more.

Lost.

A heavy gold seal ring. On the seal is an old English L. Return same to Logan Dry Goods Co and get good reward.
